Admission Policy:

The mission of Redding School of the Arts, where education and the arts connect, is to educate TK-8 students who have an interest in visual and performing arts and cultivate their knowledge and skills for the betterment of their local and global community. The School is open to any student in the State of California who meets the admissions requirements described herein. In the event that the number of pupils who wish to attend the School exceeds the school's capacity, attendance (except for existing pupils of the charter school's Independent Study program) shall be determined by a public random drawing, the process for which is described below.

- Students will be considered for admission without regards to race or ethnicity, immigration status, national origin, gender, religion, disability, sexual orientation or achievement level.
- All students must meet minimum age requirements as applicable under California law and with grade level placement in accordance with RSA board policy.
- Student may not concurrently attend a private school that charges for tuition.
- Parent involvement/volunteering is not a requirement for acceptance to, or continued enrollment a RSA.
- If enrolled in the independent study program, a student shall be documented as a resident of the county in which the charter school reports its apportionment claims or an adjacent county.
- Student must not be expelled.
- Student must agree to follow attendance and behavioral standards outlined in the Family Handbook.

Attendance at Redding School of the Arts is a choice. Attendance and promptness is required. I also understand that if information on this application is false or is misrepresented and is discovered after admittance to Redding School of the Arts, my child will be dismissed immediately and returned to their district of residence.
